

"I want to be celebrated, not mourned!"

A well-planned life celebration ceremony can completely change the way we experience the passing of a loved one.

Transforming the grieving process for all that's involved

Plan and Prepare

Advance planning is ideal to save your loved ones stress, conflict and money, but good preparation can happen anytime.

Communicate and connect

Having a good plan and a certified celebrant involved makes communication and connection between family members much easier on everyone.

Grieve and celebrate

Grieving is important, and we'll help you do that while shifting the focus from mourning their loss to celebrating their life.

Celebrate a life as a beautiful work of art.

We'll guide you every step of the way.

Deliver a ceremony that deeply connects participants with the person that passed, while helping them grieve in a healthy way. We'll help envision and plan a custom life celebration, put the plan to paper, and communicate it as appropriate.

You focus on grieving well and healing, we'll handle the details

Our certified celebrants take the lead to deliver the ceremony as planned with compassion and grace, coordinating with key family and friends as well as other involved professionals to relieve the stress and ensure the deceased's intentions and wishes are fulfilled.

Loo Family

Dad's passing was hard on all of us, but his decision to plan a life celebration ceremony ahead of time allowed our family and friends to come together in a unique way of his own choosing to grieve while celebrating all the joy he brought us rather than focus on mourning.
